

Metrica

Flexible multi-lingual solution

Overview

- Metrica is an expert, award-winning, global media analysis and evaluation company.
- Metrica approached Language Connect to discuss its need for native linguists in a wide range of languages reflecting its clients' needs for global press analysis.

Tailored Solutions

- Language Connect provides the service based on the ability to deliver urgent language solutions ranging from instant translations to on-site linguistic media analysis required to process the outstanding workload before the final deadline.

How we delivered a great solution

- Fully-trained Language Connect specialists are allocated to the same client to ensure consistent and swift analysis of project material. Flexibility, relevant knowledge and speed are paramount and we deliver on all three.
